
Designated 1974

The Allnutt House [also known as the Sante-Allnutt House] was built in 1890. It is one of the first houses built in Henry Copps' 520-acre subdivision known as "West End Park." Henry C. Allnutt was the register of wills, according to the U.S. Census of 1900. A large Victorian home, it features asymetrical massing, a corner tower and a wrap-around porch with spindle decoration. This property is also listed in the National Register of Historic Places.
