

Designated 2003

The Steinberg House, constructed in 1929, is an American Foursquare with square form, hipped roof with wide flared eaves and 3/1 windows. The foundation uses stone-faced concrete blocks, a typical early 20th century material. The Steinbergs, reputedly Rockville's first Jewish family, were important retailers in downtown Rockville for over 50 years.

CITY OF ROCKVILLE
COMMUNITY PLANNING
AND DEVELOPMENT SERVICES

Steinberg House
110 S. Adams Street

