

What do you want Rockville to be like in 2040?

The City of Rockville's 2002 Comprehensive Master Plan is guided by the following 14 principles (Page 1-1 of the plan):

Rockville will be a city that:

1. Protects the character of its neighborhoods;
2. Develops a sense of a cohesive community that overcomes physical barriers and links neighborhoods;
3. Fosters a vibrant Town Center that has a distinctive character;
4. Provides a diversity of integrated transportation options;
5. Emphasizes its parks and open spaces;
6. Respects the natural environment and historic resources, and promotes the responsible, sustainable use of natural resources for present and future populations;
7. Provides a high level of community services and facilities;
8. Maintains a safe and secure community;
9. Encourages a broad range of housing styles and prices;
10. Promotes active community involvement in planning and city government;
11. Recognizes the diverse nature and needs of the community;
12. Encourages a strong and diverse local economy;
13. Establishes a supportive environment for advanced technology, technological industries, and institutions of higher learning;
14. Recognizes its unique position as the governmental center of Montgomery County.

Table Exercise:

Would you delete or change any of them?

Would you add something new?

Please work with your table to reach consensus.
