

Howland House

540 Beall Avenue

The Howland House was constructed ca.1909 and illustrates the early suburban development of West End Park. It is a good example of residential architecture transitioning from the late Victorian style to Colonial Revival, with elements of both.

2014 Aerial

 Rockville Historic District  Site Location