October 18, 2021 to October 24, 2021

Weekly Public Safety and Crime Information

October is National Crime Prevention Month! The Rockville City Police Department is committed to protecting and serving the citizens of Rockville and its visitors. As part of national crime prevention month, the Rockville City Police Department is providing citizens with tips that can reduce your chances of becoming a victim of a crime, and ways that you can help police in making Rockville a safer city for everyone.

Preparing for Halloween

Halloween is fast approaching this year, and the Rockville City Police Department wants everyone to enjoy taking part in the festivities while helping to keep everyone safe! With that in mind, here are a few tips to help keep you and your children safe this Halloween!

To ensure that trick-or-treaters, you and your house stay safe, remember to:

- Clean your yard, and sidewalk of any obstacles.
- Keep your house well-lighted – both inside and out.
- Report any suspicious or criminal activities to the police.
- Drive slowly if you are out and about during the evening.

Costume Safety:

- Make sure your child's costume is made of a flame-retardant material.
- Keep costumes short to prevent trips and falls.
- Try make-up instead of masks – since masks can sometime obstruct vision.
- Look for brightly colored costumes or affix reflective strips to costumes and bags.
- Have your child carry a flashlight or glow sticks.
- If your child's costume involves any sort of fake weapon, make sure it's made from flexible material such as cardboard or foam.
- Make sure your child wears comfortable shoes.

Preparing your children for Trick-or-Treating:

- Make sure older children go out with friends /groups.
- Make sure that younger children are accompanied by an adult.
- Set time limits and a route for children as to where they can and can't go and what time they should be home by.
- Remind your child to stay away from vacant buildings, wooded lots and to avoid stranger's houses and vehicles.

After a successful night of Trick-or-Treating:

- Remind children not to eat any treats until they get home.
- Parents should check all treats at home in a well-lighted place. Despite commonly shared beliefs regarding incidents of tainted candy, these incidents are incredibly rare. However, it is better to be safe and discard of any items that have damaged factory wrapping such as holes, tears, or anything that is not wrapped in its original packaging

By following some of these tips you can reduce the potential of becoming a victim of crime and accidents. Help us by doing your part to ensure everyone enjoys a safe and fun Halloween!
