POLICE CRIME REPORT

BE ABLE TO RECOGNIZE HUMAN TRAFFICKING

---

January is National Human Trafficking Prevention Month, a time to rekindle our efforts against forced labor and the commercial sex trade of millions of men, women, and children. You can help simply by learning some possible signs of human trafficking:

Human trafficking victims can be anywhere, but particularly at restaurants, elder care centers, salons and spas, agricultural fields, hotels, and construction sites.

You may learn that victims are living with their employer, living with multiple others in cramped or poor conditions, or may have their employer holding their identity documents. You may not be allowed to speak to a potential victim alone, or their answers appear scripted or rehearsed.

You can always report a tip to the National Human Trafficking Hotline at 1-888-373-7888.

Learn about human trafficking on the U.S. Department of State's website by clicking here.

If you have a crime or concern to report, you can call the Rockville City Police Department at:

Non-Emergency: 240-314-8900

Emergency: 9-1-1

We provide a weekly report of serious crime to serve as an overview of police activity occurring within City Limits. Please note this summary does not include every reported incident that has occurred during this time frame and that the words "arrested" and "charged" do not imply guilt.
