POLICE CRIME REPORT

DURING WAR, BE MINDFUL OF CHARITY SCAMS

The ongoing war and refugee crisis in eastern Europe presents a prime opportunity for fraudsters to pose as a charity and obtain your money on false pretenses.

If you're contacted for funds concerning humanitarian relief on email, text, or phone:

- Ask for detailed information about the charity, including address and phone number.
- Look up the charity through their website or a trusted third-party source to confirm that the charity is real. Guidestar.org is a good, free resource to obtain information about nonprofits.
- Follow your gut – your instincts are more accurate than you may think. If you don't feel comfortable and if a donation doesn't feel right, don't contribute.

If you've become aware of a fraud or a scam, you can submit a complaint online with the Federal Trade Commission (FTC): <https://reportfraud.ftc.gov>

If you have a crime or concern to report, you can call the Rockville City Police Department at:

Non-Emergency: 240-314-8900

Emergency: 9-1-1

We provide a weekly report of serious crime compiled by our agency and occurring within city limits. The “incidents” section does not include incidents with a named suspect.
