

Title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA) of 1996, as amended, codified at 8 U.S.C. §§ 1601-1646, governs the eligibility of noncitizens for federal, state, and local public benefits. Accordingly, upon request from the County, the City must collect and provide to the County appropriate immigration documentation of each recipient of this federal award to enable the County to verify the recipient's immigration status using the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) program or another County-approved system. The County may ask the City to assist with the verification process.

Please note the added language that must be in the signed statement on invoices in Attachment II:

“I understand that receipt of this federal CDBG from the County is contingent upon the award of the federal CDBG to the County. “
